

333 Rio Rancho Drive NE, Suite 200, Rio Rancho, NM 87124
505-814-1460

Rio Rancho Family Counseling Center, LLC Patient Privacy Notice

Your privacy is protected by Rio Rancho Family Counseling Center, LLC in accordance with HIPPA standards which are designed to protect all “individually identifiable health information”. This Privacy Rule calls such information “protected health information” which may include such personal information as your name, address, birth date, Social Security Number, etc

Further, your privacy and confidentiality are protected in accordance with the standards of the AAMFT (American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy) which are in compliance with the universally held standards of the mental health profession.

The exception to these standards exists in cases where there is reason for us to suspect threat of injury to yourself or others (e.g. children, the elderly) as required by law; or the exception where you sign a release of your information for some personal medical or legal situation.

We are required to keep records that include basic information such as the dates of your sessions, fees and payments, and any applicable clinical information. By law, we also protect the confidentiality of these records.

We reserve the right to make changes to our privacy policy which will be posted on this website. Please feel free to contact us with any questions: 505 814-1460